

ENTIRE BOARD OF TRUSTEES ELECTED

The school election at which four trustees for the Amarillo Independent district were named yesterday, was a rather quiet affair, the following gentlemen being named to succeed themselves with a vote of seventy-four each: D. W. Owen, E. S. Burgess, W. T. Hudson and Sam R. Merrill. No opposition was offered.

Other members of the board are W. S. Roberts, W. C. Kenyon and E. L. Higginbotham. The election of yesterday leaves the board without change as it has stood for the past three years.

The total amount paid in sick, disability and death benefits by the Boot and Shoe Workers' International Union during the last year was about $90,000.

MERRY WAR OF LOCAL FACTIONS

Presinet 8—J. A. Wells chairman; J. L. Smith, C. C. Chenoweth, J. A. Stanford, G. M. Ledford, instructed for Wilson.

Presinet 9—J. D. Bartlett, chairman; Sam J. Brown, Alex Lumpkin, W. A. Miller, Sr., W. P. Hopkins, Charles Mayer, uninstructed.

Republican Delegates.

The republicans of Amarillo held conventions in practically all precincts with a majority of instructed delegates for Theodore Roosevelt and in support of Cecil A. Lyon as state chairman and national committeeman from Texas. Prominent among delegates to the county convention Tuesday, May 7 are: P. I. Storm, A. N. Mulvaney, C. A. Fisk, H. H. Cooper, H. C. Harding, A. H. Webster, Jack Hall, J. N. Haney, Sr., and W. H. Ingerton.

In addition to the instructed delegates for Roosevelt, it is learned that some of the uninstructed delegates will support the Colonel and Cecil A. Lyon.

The entire state of Illinois reports but 7,677 children under sixteen years at work; in all Ohio there are only 5,619 children regularly at work.

TRADES EXCURSIONISTS BEGIN JOURNEY MONDAY MORNING AT 7 O'CLOCK

Yesterday was a busy one with all committees and individuals working in interest of the Amarillo Auto Trades Excursion which leaves here tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock, including approximately seventy-five persons. The executive committee met yesterday noon with Dick P. Seay at the Harvey House and discussed full and final details. Every phase of the situation was settled, and it was determined that the number on the tickets of the various excursionists shall determine their position in the cars.

Numbers will be drawn for in the line by the automobiles from day to day following Monday. Following is the schedule with two hours allowance at Memphis in addition to that shown here, with a corresponding change on nearby points:
